

John G. Neihardt Foundation's

37th Annual Spring Conference

Wounded Knee 1890: Aftermath of a People's Dream

Saturday, April 28, 2018

8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Presenters

- Dr. Jerome Green – Keynote Address: “American Carnage – Wounded Knee 1890”
- Dr. Joseph Starita – “Another Eyewitness: The Dull Knives of Pine Ridge”
- Wayne State college Drama Club: “song of the Messiah” by Neihardt
- Joseph Green – “The Meaning of Neihardt’s “Messiah” and Sitanka’s message”

The 37th Annual Neihardt Spring Conference is a one-day conference of presentations by noted educators, historians, and authors for discussion of the tragedy of Wounded Knee, the role of the Ghost Dance Movement in what led to the massacre, and the aftermath – its continuing role in Native history into the current time.

Conference Fees: $25 adults; $10 students. Lunch additional $10.

To Register Contact:

John G. Neihardt State Historic Site

306 W. Elm Street, Bancroft, NE 68004

For more information: 888-777-HOOP or 402-648-3388

neihardt@gpcom.net

This event is sponsored by the Neihardt Foundation,
Humanities Nebraska, Nebraska Cultural Endowment,
Wayne State College, and Cuming County Visitors Bureau